

TikTok & Youth Cultures in the Age of COVID-19 Programme

Monday 29 March 2021 0900-1100hrs GMT+8

0855-0900	Open Zoom, attendees settle in
0900-0905	Welcome, housekeeping	A/Prof Crystal Abidin
0905-0935	SESSION 01: How are young people messaging COVID-19 on TikTok? 25 min discussion + 5 min Q&A	Presenters: A/Prof Crystal Abidin (Curtin University) Dr D. Bondy Valdovinos Kaye (QUT) Dr Andy Zhao (Deakin University)
0935-1015	SESSION 02: How has COVID-19 impacted the landscape and culture of TikTok? 35 min discussion + 5 min Q&A	Panellists: Ariel Bogle (ASPI International Cyber Policy Centre) Kylie Sng (Hepmil Creators Network) Patrick Smith (Educator/TikToker) Moderator: Aleesha Rodriguez (QUT)
1015-1055	SESSION 03: What is the future of TikTok for youth engagements? 35 min discussion + 5 min Q&A	Panellists: Tahlea Aualiitia (ABC) Oddie Randa (Gushcloud Indonesia) Nich Richie (Activist/TikToker) Moderator: Dr Emily van der Nagel (Monash University)
1055-1100	Thanks, closing	A/Prof Crystal Abidin

Organized by A/Prof Crystal Abidin, Dr D. Bondy Valdovinos Kaye & Dr Andy Zhao

Supported by TikTok Cultures Research Network, Centre for Culture and Technology (Curtin University, and Social Science Research Council

For enquiries, contact Dr D Bondy Valdovinos Kaye at tiktokcultures@gmail.com

tiktokcultures.com/covid-19-event