

Dr Ariadna Matamoros-Fernández

Keynote Title:

Discussing and Assessing Harmful Humor on TikTok

TikTok and Social Movements | 20 September 2021

Dr Ariadna Matamoros-Fernández is a Lecturer in Digital Media at the Queensland University of Technology, Chief Investigator at the Digital Media Research Centre (DMRC) and Associate Investigator at the ARC Centre of Excellence for Automated Decision-Making and Society (ADM+S).

Her research focuses on the interplay between user practices and platform politics in (re)producing social inequality. She is setting up a research agenda around platform governance in relation to harmful humorous online expression, and has extensive experience in developing digital methods to study digital platforms.

Matamoros-Fernández has published on these topics in Information, Communication & Society, Television & New Media, Feminist Media Studies and other international peer-reviewed journals.